"Our priority remains delivering the very best products and the most customized ways to shop to our customers," said Jared Briskin, SVP & Chief Merchant, Hibbett | City Gear. "I could not be more excited about the new structure of my team and how we will 'wow' customers with an even more targeted and tailored shopping experience."

As a part of the new alignment, Hibbett has also announced the hiring of industry veteran, Stephani Smith as VP/GMM Hibbett. Smith brings 27 years of industry experience with Nike, spanning across North America, Europe, the Middle East and Africa. Her experience includes Sales and Merchandising, as well as, General Management at both Nike and Converse. In her new role, Stephani will be focused on furthering the development of the holistic women's business by sharply focusing on the female consumer at Hibbett.

"We could not be more thrilled to have someone with such tremendous experience join our team," said Jared Briskin, SVP and Chief Merchant of Hibbett | City Gear. "Stephani's background and leadership will complement the strength and experience of our current team."
